ORAL ORDER:

The petitioner in the present writ petition seeks a direction to the respondent to release the pensionary benefits of her husband and to provide suitable job to her son on compassionate grounds.

The petitioner claims that her husband G.Premanandham died while working in the South Central Railway, Vijayawada as Helper. In the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition, the petitioner has not furnished the service particulars of her husband as to his place of work, date of joining and the service, length of service rendered by him etc, and she merely states that her husband died while working as Helper in the office of the South Central Railway, Vijayawada, Krishna district and that she has submitted the death and legal heir certificates to the respondent and alleges that no action is taken in the matter. In the absence of material particulars and documents in support of her claim, it cannot be said that respondents have not taken any action in the matter.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed. However, the dismissal of the writ petition does not bar the petitioner from making a detailed representation to the concerned authorities. On making any such representation, the respondent is directed to consider the same and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law. No costs.
